KIDSBRIDGE is a nonprofit organization dedicated to providing imaginative hands-on programs focusing on: bullying prevention, tolerance, diversity appreciation and respect for all people. Since 1996, Kidsbridge has sought to fill the large voids that exist in the learning of life skills, character education and diversity appreciation with knowledge, aspiration and empowerment. The jewel in the Kidsbridge program crown is the Kidsbridge Tolerance Museum. Located in the Ewing Senior & Community Center in Ewing, NJ, it is the only youth-dedicated tolerance museum in the United States. More than 2,200 students and 200 educators visit the Museum each year.

Let's WORK TOGETHER — and WALK TOGETHER — to raise awareness of bullying and cyberbullying problems! A great opportunity to bring kids, families, educators, youth & service groups and members of the community together.

For more information about the Walk, fundraising levels, sponsorship opportunities, or to volunteer visit www.kidsbridgemuseum.org or email Lynne Azarchi at lynne@kidsbridgemuseum.org.
