The MAD Spring 2007 Camporee will be a combination of fun and work activities including:

Muzzleloading Rifle Shooting

Modern Shotgun Shooting

Camp Maintenance Projects

Re-dedication of the Chapel

Saturday Night Campfire

Refreshments will be available for purchase on Saturday.

Please use the Registration Form included following to sign up, thanks. After you register, you will be able to reserve a time slot for Muzzleloading Rifle Shooting and/or Modern Shotgun Shooting.

You can find a list of the priority Camp Maintenance Projects at <http://mad-bsa.org/thisoldcamp> along with a set of photos showing most of the project areas. Troops can adopt a project on a first-come basis. You can work on a project before the Camporee, at the Camporee, or after the Camporee. It is not necessary for you to attend the Camporee to adopt a project, Some of the projects have already been adopted by a Troop or Troops.

Scouts will be able to participate in all of the projects, but for some of the activities BSA guidelines will require an adult to operate the equipment, such as using chain saws. The projects will give Scouts the opportunity to acquire some of the knowledge and skills needed for several Merit Badges, including Electricity, Home Repairs, Painting, Plumbing, and Woodwork. In fact some of the projects will allow Scouts to actually meet some Merit Badge requirements.

For details about the projects including donations of tools and materials, please contact
Gene genemcdermott@aol.com

A very special feature of the Camporee will be the Re-dedication of the Chapel in memory of Eagle Scout Kevin Paulson at an All-Faith Service on Saturday.

Camporee participants can come just for the day, if they do not want to camp. The registration fee is $12 for all participants, youth or adult, as shown on the accompanying Registration Form.
